The amount collected on account of arrears during 1911-12 was Rs 32,836 against Rs 21,204 for 1910-11. Though there was an appreciable increase in the collection of old arrears, it is not known what amount of increase was due to the distanning officer, as there was other temporary establishment of a temporary officer on a pay of Rs 75 for the supervision of the collection of taxes & 4 distanning officers, temporary on Rs 20 each. It appeared, the President may be requested to justify the statement in para 2 by furnishing statistics.

The President, Municipal Council,
Bangalore City.

The Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments,
Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the appointment of a second Distraining Officer on a salary of Rs 12/- per mensem was first sanctioned in 1902-03 temporarily for one year for the collection of old arrears of several previous years. Its continuance in subsequent years having been found absolutely necessary to clear up the arrears, the Council recommended the same year after year and the Government were pleased to sanction the proposal successively up to end of 1911-12.

2. The accounts go to show that there has been a steady improvement in the collection of old arrears after the creation of the post of a second Distraining Officer but yet much remains to be done.

3. It is extremely hard to get through the collection work without adequate out-door staff especially after the introduction of the system of collecting taxes from the rate-payers in half-yearly instalments.

4. I, therefore, request you to be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to disburse the pay of the additional Distraining Officer for which provision exists in the current year's budget, pending the issue of final orders of Government on the proposals contained in my letter No. 104 dated 23rd November 1911.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
